HIGHLIGHTS & DESCRIPTION

Roughshooting in Ireland

Overview

In the south-west of Ireland lies the county of Kerry. It is an incredibly beautiful area with mountains and valleys, rivers and streams and lakes. You also find Ireland's highest mountain, Carruntuohill at 1041 m in this area.

Our partner in Ireland has approx. 20,000 hectares of varying hunting area in Co. Kerry, where there is a really good population of sika deer. In the higher lying areas there is also a good population of wild goats.

Roughshooting:

In addition to rifle hunting, a number of different shotgun hunts are also offered, the most popular of which is probably the traditional roughshooting.

We can offer unique experiences for hunting parties from 2 to 12 hunters. They can enjoy a good day of hunting in some of the most unspoiled areas of Kerry, where it abounds with woodcock, snipe, duck and other game. The hunters are divided into groups, and for every other hunter there is a guide. A group of 4 hunters will be accompanied by 2 guides. One thing is for sure, the hunters will have an exciting day with experienced hunters and dogs through various terrains, from Kerry's bumpy bogs and moors to rolling green hills and mountains.

The hunt will mainly be for woodcocks and snipes and it is not unusual for each group to see up to 15-40 woodcocks per day, depending on weather conditions during the period you are hunting in. In addition, there is also other

- Hunting until 13:00 pm
- Breakfast at a local pub
- Hunting until sunset
- There is the possibility of evening flights on ducks on certain terrains

Hunting clothes: Bring a raincoat as it often rains. Jacket, water- and wind proved trousers, boots, hat or cap.

Shotgun: Shotgun caliber 12, 16, 20 - 28 and 410 caliber.

Cartridges: It is possible to buy cartridges at the place

It takes approx. 4 hours drive from Dublin to the hunting area of ??Kerry. Alternatively, you can also choose to fly to Cork or Kerry in the west of Ireland - however, it often requires a intermediate landing.

He has a very good reputation and his hunting organization is known throughout Europe.

ACCOMMODATION

Accommodation during the hunt

Hunters visiting here have a choice of different types of accommodation. They can choose to stay in a charming hotel or pub - possibility for full board - or stay in a self-catering cabin. The cabins are located in a beautiful natural setting, which really does help to bring the right atmosphere for a hunting trip. At the same time the cabins are in easy driving distance of a number of small Irish towns, where you can buy provisions. Also, if you feel like it, it is also possible to enjoy a meal in one of the pubs and restaurants in town. The hunting cabins are fully equipped with all necessary facilities. If you choose to stay in one of these attractive cabins, that are situated as close to the hunting district as possible, you only need to bring along towels, dishes cloths etc. as well as your bed linen, just as you would if you hired a summerhouse in Denmark! For any non-hunters in your party, there is some great sightseeing in the region, including the beautiful historic town of Killarney. Some driving may be involved to reach some of the hunting districts.

Our hunt manager has plenty of experience, having worked in the hunting business and arranged hunts for many years. He has arranged shooting for woodcock and other small game for other 30 years and has also been arranging hunting for sika stags for over 20 years. So it must be said he is an experienced gentleman. This hunting organization is known all over Europe and it has a really good reputation.

Our partner has access to some very varied hunting; a combination of mountains, lakes and forests, all of which gives visiting hunters a wide range of possibilities.

HUNTING AREA County Kerry

Our partner in Ireland has access to around 20,000 ha. of hunting in Co. Kerry, with a really good population of sika deer.

In the higher parts of the district there is also a good population of wild goats, so if desired, it is possible to combine hunting for sika and goat. The wild goat hunts typically take place on the mountain-sides close to rocky caves. All the hunters that have hunted wild goats here have enjoyed a really good hunt.

Sika stags are an incredibly fascinating creature to experience these stags are often referred to as black ghosts. Hunting them is very interesting indeed, during the rut the whistling calls of the stags really does give an extra dimension to the hunting experience.

Although the hunting district is hilly, it is suitable for hunters of all abilities as there are many gentler plateaus. The hunt is a combination of using high-seats and stalking. This district, with its mountains, large lakes and great forests is so beautiful and gives such a wide range of experiences, it can be warmly recommended.

About us

Limpopo & Diana Hunting Tours

Limpopo & Diana Hunting Tours Limpopo Travel and Diana Hunting Tours – which today are one and the same company - are built on more than four decades of experience in the hunting travel industry. Diana Hunting tours was founded in Svendborg back in 1974 by the internationally known figure in the hunting tour industry, Jan Krossteig, who today remains shareholder and chairman of the concern.

Over the years the company has grown into the world's largest hunting travel office, with hunting partners in more than 40 countries and customers from around the world. This has only been possible because of the strength of our customers faith in our company, our partners and the service we provide. We take great pride in the fact that a significant number of our customers are "regulars" you not only travel with us frequently, but also bring with them new customers into our business.

The hunting travel market has never been as chaotic as it is at present. There have always been a mass of small and medium sized agencies trading on the market, but in recent years the rise of the internet has really opened up the market for direct booking and packages sold by "agents" of more or less transparent character and by agencies based abroad.

A large number of hunters have had their fingers burnt booking "cheap" packages, which rarely proceed as promised. Generally it is only when things go wrong that the unfortunate hunter who bought the tour first realises what the difference between a good Danish travel agency - with all the security that entails - and a questionable foreign seller, really is.

What we offer our customers is a rather unique level of security. Our experienced staff really know our destinations and can provide highly qualified advice tailored to the customer's individual requirements. If you book your hunting tour through us you also have a guarantee against the unlikely event of bankruptcy through the Danish Travel Guarantee Fund. Our long standing membership of the Danish Travel Agency Association is also a guarantee for professional service throughout all the proceedings that a hunting tour entails - also in the event of something not going quite as planned. As one of our customers you can expect around the clock support, via our emergency hotline, in the event of anything at all going wrong.
